Do you need employees? Do you have jobs to offer?
Or are you an individual looking for a new job in the area?
North Shore WIB can help – jobs are our business.

- And we offer our services to individuals and businesses at no charge! We can do this because we specialize in directing federal, state, and local employment and training funds so that
- Businesses can find skilled, ready-to-work employees
  - Job seekers can find training and employment

North Shore Workforce Investment Board was established as a concerted effort among business, education and community leaders to strengthen human resource development in our very competitive labor market.

NSWIB services include:

- For employers (over 2,000 served each year):
Finding and keeping the right employees, through quality screening and assistance in paying for training.
- For agencies and schools (over 100 served each year):
Interpreting local labor needs and helping design new programs for constituents that meet these needs.
- For adults (over 10,000 served each year):
Helping people understand their interests and capabilities, find the training they need, and move into quality jobs.
- For youth (over 2,000 served each year):
Providing career information that leads to informed career and post secondary decisions and help in finding the most important first job.

In addition, the WIB provides labor market information on an on-going basis to the community.
